One day Nasreddin borrowed a pot from his neighbour Ali. Ali was a man with bad manners. The next day he brought it back with another little pot inside. "That's not mine," said Ali. "Yes, it is," said Nasreddin. "While your pot was staying with me, it had a baby." Ali was very pleased with having two pots. A little time later Nasreddin asked Ali to lend him a pot again. Ali agreed, hoping that he would once again receive two pots in return. However, days passed and Nasreddin had still not returned the pot. Finally Ali lost patience and went to demand his property. "I am sorry," said Nasreddin. "I can't give you back your pot, since it has died." "Died!" screamed Ali, "how can a pot die?" "Well," said Nasreddin, "You believed me when I told you that your pot had had a baby."

The Chinese New Year begins on a different date each year between January 21 and February 20. The Chinese New Year is a very important festival for the Chinese people. The holiday is sometimes called the Lunar New Year, or Spring Festival. The festivals last for fifteen days. The final day is the most important day of the holiday, and is known as "the Lantern Festival". There are twelve animal signs in the Chinese zodiac calendar. Each year is represented by a different animal. Cleaning the house from top to bottom before New Year's Day is believed to bring good luck in the coming year. People open windows and doors to let in good luck. Leaving the lights on in the house over night is believed to "scare away" any bad spirits. Some people believe that what happens on the first day of the Chinese New Year reflects the rest of the year to come. Chinese people will often play games at the start of the year, hoping to obtain good luck and fortune if they win.

Today I finally climbed Mt. Everest, the tallest mountain in the world. The top of the mountain was amazing. It felt like we were close to the sky. The snow was so thick that my boots sank. I looked at the beauty around me. Maybe my story would be a legend one day. I wanted people to remember this forever. I was the senior explorer in my group. I took many pictures with my camera. I would put them in a frame and hang them. On the mountain, the air was very cold. I looked over the side of the mountaintop. From that angle, I saw the border of the clouds touching the rocks below. It looked pure. There was no sign of modern life. After fifteen minutes, I knew it was time to go down from the mountain. I was glad. The team congratulated us. My chief praised us. I sent messages to my relatives to tell them that I was safe. But it was hard to leave the mountain so quickly. I wanted to enjoy the incredible sight longer.

27. According to the passage, what is this story about?

- A) Modern life on the mountains.
- B) How to use a camera on the mountain.
- C) The conditions of terrible weather.
- D) The author's incredible experience.

28. According to the passage, what did the author see from the angle over the side of the mountaintop?

- A) His boots in the snow.
- B) The sun in the east.
- C) The border of the clouds.
- D) His picture in a frame.

29. According to the passage, the author was happy to do all of the following, EXCEPT

- A) hearing his team congratulate him
- B) leaving the mountain quickly
- C) sending messages to his relatives
- D) getting praise from his chief

30. According to the passage, the air at the top of the mountain was

- A) hot B) cold C) warm D) thick
