

PZ-20170926459-History of Navo'i studies (XX - XXI centuries)

practical project

Project Manager: Ph.D., Associate Professor, Mullahojayeva Karomat Tashkhodjayevna.

The purpose of the project: Navoi of the world's orientalists in the twentieth century one-sided views on his life and work, some misinterpretations as a result, it is still based on what was said about the poet today the preservation of perceptions is an objective way to change them to correct the attitude of the world community towards Navoi increasing the desire.

Second, over the years, to say the least. It is possible that specific directions of Uzbek Navoi studies have been formed. Brief description of the project: It is known that in Uzbek literature Navoi studies XX from the beginning of the twentieth century. Alisher Navoi works of the author by a special commission on the eve of the 500th anniversary of his birth published in the current alphabet, prose statements of "Hamsa" epics prepared. Creation of bibliography of Navoi studies, anthology of Navoi studies creation, organization of conferences in the diorama of the project theme, within the project.

The main purpose of the work is to publish monographs, scientific articles. Bibliography Higher education philological faculties, literary scholars, doctoral students and representatives of the field of scientific research is a valuable resource for And the Uzbek people themselves a guide to the study of the past, literary heritage, and spiritual values function. The emergence of various literary processes, development laws, literary influences, partnerships, and our rich creative heritage will have information.