Project purpose: In the twentieth century, some misinterpretations by the world's orientalists' one-sided views on the life and work of Navoi, have survived to the present day, this expresses the desire of the public to correct the attitude towards Navoi. Secondly, over the years, it can be stated that specific directions of Uzbek Navoi studies have been formed.

Main objective: It is acknowledged that in Uzbek literature, Navoi studies began to be investigated on a systematic basis in the early twentieth century. On the eve of the 500th anniversary of Alisher Navoi, a special commission published the masterpieces of the writer in the current alphabet, prepared prose descriptions of the epic "Khamasa".

Expected results: The main purpose of the work is to create a bibliography of Navoi studies, to create an anthology of Navoi studies, to organize conferences on the project theme, to publish monographs, scientific articles within the project.

Scope: The bibliography is a valuable resource for philological faculties of higher education, literary scholars, doctoral students and researchers. It also serves as a guide for the study of the Uzbek people's past, literary heritage and spiritual values. They will learn about the emergence of various literary processes, the laws of development, literary influence, partnerships, our rich creative heritage.

Project implementation: PZ-20170926459-Practical project "History of Navoi studies (XX - XXI centuries)" (300.000000 soums) for 2018-2020.
